

The following organisations can provide further information and support for pupils with SEND
Please note that we are not responsible for the content of external websites

Advisory Centre for Education advice and information on education issues.

British Dyslexia Association

National Association of Citizens Advice Bureaux

BullyingUK part of family lives

National Association of Special Educational Needs

Council for Disabled Children

National Asthma UK

Disability Living Foundation

National Autistic Society

Dyslexia Action

National Deaf Children's Society \(NDCS\)

English Federation of Disability Sport

National Eczema Society

Epilepsy Action

National Federation of the Blind

IPSEA Independent Parental Special Education Advice

Physically Disabled and Able Bodied \(PHAB\)

MENCAP Support people with a learning disability.

The National Network of Parent Carer Forums

MIND (National Association for Mental Health)

Whizz Kidz can help to transform the lives of disabled children across the UK.

Information, Advice and Support Services Network

Young Minds improving children's wellbeing and mental health.

Headway National Head Injuries Association

Child Law Advice website has a section for children and young people

AFASIC Supports parents and represents children and young people with speech, language and communication needs (SLCN).

Children's Legal Centre Free legal information, advice and representation for children, young people, their families, carers and professionals.

I CAN - The children's communication charity supports children with speech, language and communication difficulties.

Scope provide support and information if your child has a physical impairment, learning disability or any other condition.

Special Needs Jungle Parent-led information, resources and informed opinion about children and young people with SEN, special needs, disability, health conditions and rare diseases.